

User Stories

1. John wants to buy a necklace for his girlfriend. After seeing the homepage of the website, he clicks on the “shop” page to order a necklace of his choice.
2. Mary wants some art in her home. She likes the pictures of art that are showcased in the gallery and decides that she wants to place a custom order. She goes to the “contact” page on the website and fills out a form with her name, email, phone number, and comments about her order.
3. Bailey wants some new jewelry so she checks out the gallery on the website. However, before deciding to make a purchase, she decides to check out Anisa’s instagram page, which is linked to her website. .